

Hayle

- Judged by Martin Ford & Ruth Miles on 17th July 2008

Outstanding all round entry

All section contributed: well organised tour, good portfolio.

Contributions from all sectors: Local Authority, trade and commerce, voluntary sector, schools

Paradise Gardens a delight

Portfolio and judges tour well planned

Entrance bed into town

Enthusiasm and dedication from all

Well done Hayle

Floral Displays:

The judges were particularly impressed by:

1. Entrance RAB into town
2. Very high standards of floral displays throughout
3. Bright and vibrant colour schemes
4. Good use of 'hot' plants and plants that grow well in the area
5. Use of underground reservoirs
6. Displays at Loggin's Fish Bar, Cornish Arms and Paradise Park

Permanent landscaping, including shrubs:

The judges were particularly impressed by:

Main RAB planting very good and appropriate

Permanent planting excellent throughout

Adopt-a-plot schemes working well

Paradise Gardens excellent

Local Agenda 21 and Sustainable Development:

The judges were particularly impressed by:

1. Re-cycling
2. Use of underground reservoirs in flower beds
3. Copperhouse regeneration
4. Hayle library

Local Environmental Quality:

The judges were particularly impressed by:

1. Clean ups by McDonalds
2. Community involvement
3. General cleanliness all round

Public Awareness:

The judges were particularly impressed by:

1. Website- excellent and comprehensive
2. Good portfolio – well laid out and good use of space
3. Well planned and scheduled judges tour